Transform "mine" into "Yours" and become a carefree emperor. Make your mind so busy in your love for the Father and His service that there is no margin for any waste to come.

Today, BapDada is seeing His carefree emperors everywhere. From the time of waking up in the morning, every child remains stable in the carefree stage while performing every action. Every child experiences this life of a carefree emperor to be one of sovereignty and also of being carefree. It feels so lovely because all of you have given your worries (fikar) to the Father and taken spiritual intoxication (fakhur). The spiritual intoxication that you have taken is imperishable spiritual intoxication. Each one of you experiences how lovely this carefree life is. Day and night, you have no worries about anything, but you just have spiritual intoxication. You know that the Father has given you this life to remain carefree, not just for this one birth, but He has made you carefree emperors for many births. Now, your experience is that, if you have a carefree life, then a divine light is constantly sparkling on your forehead, whereas if you have worry, you then have a basket on your head that is filled with many types of sorrow. This method of a carefree life is very easy. You have made all the limited "mines" into "Yours". There is the difference of just this one letter in "mine" (mera) and "Yours" (tera). M and T. However, by your changing "mine" into "Yours", your lives become so happy. It has become that, has it not? Nod your heads. Has it become that? Your lives have become carefree. This is because the basis of a life filled with worry is waste thoughts. BapDada now wants this from every child: Let there not be any trace of waste thoughts in any child, because you have changed "mine" into "Yours". So then, what do you become? You become carefree emperors and this life of a carefree emperor is so lovely. You are a carefree emperor while performing every action. You don't have any worry about 'Why?', 'What?', 'How?' or 'Until when?' All of those questions have now finished. Today, on the last day of this season, BapDada wants every child to change the wasteful "mine" into "Yours". The Father Himself will burn it. You simply have to make the change of one letter. Do you agree? Is it possible? If it is possible, then raise your hands! Very good, because in the next five to six months, with your powerful attitude, all of you have to give rays of happiness and peace to the unhappy souls of the world. You have to keep your mind busy doing this. Where do wasteful thoughts arise? They arise in your mind, do they not? So, BapDada wants every carefree emperor child to keep his mind, that is, his attitude so busy that there is no margin for any waste to come. You do not have to labour (mehnat), but remain so busy in your love for the Father (mohabbat) and keep your mind so busy serving with your attitude that you don't even have to battle. Some children say: "I don't want these to come, but they come." What would you call that? It is that you did not keep your mind busy in your love for the Father and His service. When you are all asked how much love you have for the Father, what do you say? It is unlimited. So, it is not difficult to listen to whatever the one you love says to you. So, all of you have unbroken love for the Father, do you not? Or, do you have it only sometimes? Is it constant or only sometimes? Those who say that you have love all the time, raise your hands! You have love all the time? See, think about it! If you have constant love, then, whatever the Father says, the children do. You know this, do you not?

So, now, in this season, BapDada wants to make you children have this determined thought. You are ready for this, are you not? Nod your heads. Are you ready to make a determined thought? Those at the back, are you ready? Are you mothers ready? Are you Pandavas ready? Raise your hands well! Raise both your hands for this. When you raise your hands, you please BapDada. Just as you raised your physical hands, in the same way, raise the hands of your minds: I will never allow any waste thoughts to come. It is their duty to come and what is your duty? To finish them. BapDada also told you earlier in this season about the two things that you have to pay attention to: One is thoughts and the second is time. You know this. The time of the confluence age - every minute has a connection with 21 births. At this time, BapDada has love for you children and you children have love for the Father. So, one second of time in the confluence age is not a second, because it has a connection with 21 births. If not now… you have to save your time now, because you have love for the Father for 21 births and each one wants to remain with the Father even now and also to return with Him. You now have to return to your home, do you not? You have to return home together and then go into the kingdom with BapDada. You will go close together into the kingdom, especially with Brahma Baba. Father Brahma is in the angelic form, so if you want to go back with him, what will you have to do? You will have to become angels, will you not? You will become angels. You definitely have to become those.

You have to move along with Father Brahma's hand in your hand, and so what is the hand? An angel does not have physical hands. So, what are Father Brahma's hands? Shrimat. BapDada's shrimat is: Now become a carefree emperor and, just as your Jagadamba made effort – the Father said it and Jagadamba did it - you now have to follow Jagadamba in the same way. You definitely have to use your time and thoughts in a worthwhile way, they should not go to waste. You were told that each thought has a connection with 21 births, were you not? So, BapDada wants you to keep your mind constantly busy. Whether it is in churning the murli or in doing service, remain busy at every moment. Keep your chart. Every now and then, perform the drill that BapDada has told you about from time to time. You know the drill to become bodiless, do you not? The drill of the awareness of your three forms. You know this, do you not? Just as the Father has three forms, in the same way, you also have three forms - Brahmin, angel and deity. Keep your mind busy in the awareness of these three forms with this drill. What is the great mantra for this? Manmanabhav.

BapDada has lots and lots of love for every child and this is why BapDada wants every child to take the blessing: "May you be victorious!" You were told that some children think that they will become victorious, but that the rosary is only of 108, and so they will not be able to come in the rosary even if they are victorious. However, BapDada has so much love that, if you become victorious, BapDada will add extra strings to the rosary. You just have to become victorious. So, what is your thought? You are definitely going to be victorious, are you not? Or, will just 108 become victorious? No. Every child of the Father is victorious. What is BapDada seeing on the forehead of each child? A tilak of victory, because you have recognised the Father in His ordinary form. Even if it is the last child and he may be weak in effort, he still has the speciality of having recognised the Father who came in an ordinary form and of saying "My Baba". This is why every child has to maintain courage and gain victory. What do you simply have to do? It is not a matter of any effort; it is a matter of love. You have love for BapDada, you have love for the family, and so you cannot keep yourself separate from the one you love. So, how much love do you have for Brahma Baba? Those of you who feel that you have unbroken love for Father Brahma and Father Shiva, raise your hands! Unbroken? Unbroken? Very good. So what does BapDada want to see in the next season? You know it, do you not? You are going to receive five to six months to transform any wasteful thoughts into powerful thoughts.

So speak! Those from Madhuban, stand up, whether you are those staying up at the top or down below, there are many. BapDada loves those from Madhuban. This does not mean that BapDada does not love others. They too are loved, but BapDada has special love for one thing about the Madhuban residents. What is that? All of you have remembrance in your mind. All of you are yogi souls. All of you are also gyani souls. However, those of you from Madhuban have received a lift to create your future easily. What is that lift? You are instruments for doing service for anyone who comes to Madhuban. For instance, those who cook or those who perform any other duty, BapDada says: Even if someone sweeps the floor, he too is fortunate. Why? Anyone who comes here sees the atmosphere and becomes happy when they see the power of love in your heart. Whether it is those who prepare the food or it may be any other duty, but those from Madhuban have a chance. Seeing the love of Madhuban and the powerful atmosphere created here, BapDada is congratulating the Madhuban residents very, very much that you have now completed this season, and you will continue to become instruments in the future, too, to make souls content and give them powerful experiences with your minds. Therefore, everyone should applaud the residents of Madhuban. Achcha.

Today, at amrit vela, the servers of Madhuban came in front of BapDada. BapDada met each one in the subtle region and, just as Baba has already told you previously, at 4.00 am your special Dadis who have gone in advance definitely come. Today, special Dadis and special brothers had also reached there and they especially requested to make the Madhuban residents emerge there. Both Didi and Dadi, and the special brothers too, especially remembered those from Madhuban. Dadi gave special remembrance and, along with that, they gave mangoes from the subtle region. You know that the fruits of the subtle region are very good quality, you don't have to knock them down with a stick. Whatever fruits you want, you can pick those with your hands. So Dadi said: Today, we are going to have a mango picnic with those from Madhuban. There were other Dadis and special brothers also with her. BapDada said: Ask them what comes into their minds about Madhuban? What did Dadi say? You know, you already know, you know Dadi, do you not? Dadi said: I still have the desire that each one from Madhuban - even if there is still something lacking in your efforts, you have to make effort for that - but I want one thing from the Madhuban residents. What do I want? It is that each and every resident of Madhuban becomes equal to the Father. In fact, everyone has to become that, but Madhuban is special. Those from Madhuban had love for Dadi. Dadi used to say: I know this. So, as a return of love, I want it to be just as Mama had kept the aim: Whatever Baba said, Mama did. Those from Madhuban definitely know this. In the same way, from amrit vela until night, if each one from Madhuban has love for Baba and for me and for the Dadis, then just as Mama put every piece of the Father's advice into her life, so we too did the same. So, if you have love for the Dadis, then demonstrate it by doing this: from morning till night, do not have any such thoughts, words or actions that the Dadis, the Father or anyone else does not like.

Seeing you teachers, BapDada is pleased, because you have received the fortune of the seat of being equal to the Father. You have received the seat to read the Father's murli. The Father always says that the teachers are companions. BapDada now wants one thing from the teachers. Should Baba tell you? BapDada wants each and every teacher's face to be seen as being happy as that of Father Brahma's. It should be seen like this. Internally, there may be effort, but let your face reveal the Father. Whoever anyone looks at, let the Father's sparkle be visible in them. Those who serve with their faces in this way will definitely reveal the Father. The time has now come for you to reveal the Father with your faces. The teachers always naturally remember "Mera Baba". Now you have to reveal the Father with your faces. You can do this, can you not? If you can, then do it! Look at what everyone says in the result up to now! That the Brahma Kumaris are doing very good work. The Father is not yet revealed, He is still incognito. So, the time is now coming close through you. Whether it is the instrument teachers or any child, you now have to reveal the Father. "The Brahma Kumaris are doing very good work". That has already happened. You have reached this far. However, now show that God Himself incarnated in the body of Brahma and is making the Brahma Kumaris so worthy. This point is now still left. You sing the song, "Mera Baba aa gaya – My Baba has come". However, it should now be revealed to souls that God Himself has incarnated and is carrying out this task through the sisters and brothers. You have to bring about this revelation, do you not? When will you do it? What will you say? "Now", will you not? (We will begin it now and it will be completed by next season.) Do all of you agree? Will it happen by next season? Those who agree with this, raise your hands! Few people are raising their hands. Those who are not raising their hands will simply watch, and you will do it. You teachers have had this thought, have you not? Because you can see that BapDada is saying that everything is to happen suddenly. Some children think that Baba has been saying, "Suddenly, suddenly" for a long time, and now it should happen. However, it will happen suddenly when the children become equal to the Father. Let your faces, your images and your every word reveal the Father. This is definitely going to happen. It has to happen and you simply now have to be instruments for it. What will you do in the next season? Firstly, you will make yourselves equal to the Father. Whatever weaknesses remain, you will remove them. However, what is BapDada pleased about? At all the small and big centres, children have revealed what work they are doing with words and have changed the atmosphere through that. BapDada is congratulating you for that. Whoever has done programmes at any place, you have done them well and it has come to everyone's attention that the Brahma Kumaris have truly completed 75 years of their work in an incognito way. Now, they should say that God, the Baba of the Brahma Kumaris, has come. You have this aim, do you not? So, let this work begin by next season. Make a practical programme for this. You do make programmes and have meetings, do you not? In the meetings, make this programme. All of the children have to become aware that the Father who gives the inheritance has come. They should not remain deprived. Seeing the sorrow of the children, the Father feels a lot of mercy. When they cry out in sorrow, the Father feels mercy for them. They are also calling out a lot for you gods and goddesses. So, by the next season, let there be no name or trace of any waste. Agreed? Do you agree? Raise the hand of your heart. Raise the hand of your heart. Let all knowledge of what waste is disappear. When the princesses of heaven come (in trance), they are not aware of sorrow or peacelessness at all. They say: What are they saying? What is that? In the same way, let no one in the Brahmin family even know what waste is. Pure and positive thoughts for yourself, pure and positive thoughts for others. Achcha.

To all of you children everywhere, love and remembrance from the heart of BapDada. Along with that, the Father is pleased seeing every child with faith and intoxication of your self-respect. Never let go of your self-respect. To be one with self-respect means to be one with all attainments. The list of self-respect is a long one. Keep one point of self-respect in your awareness every day, put it into your practical form, be an intense effort-maker and continue to move forward. Make BapDada sit in your heart and seat yourself in BapDada's heart. Be fearless and a master almighty authority and continue to move along. Continue to fly and make others fly. Om shanti.

Blessing: May you be a master ocean with the power to accommodate on the stage of service and thereby become an embodiment of success.

When you go onto the stage of service, many types of situations come in front of you. Therefore, accommodate those situations within yourself and you will become an embodiment of success. To accommodate means not to have the slightest trace of anything gross, even in the form of a thought or feeling, merged in you. Transform words that are not benevolent into benevolent feelings in such a way that it is as though those words that were not benevolent were never spoken. Transform defects into virtues and defamation into praise, and you will then be called a master ocean.

Slogan: Someone who doesn't see the expansion but sees the essence and merges that into himself is an intense effort-maker.

Avyakt signal: Experience the complete and perfect stage, the same as Father Brahma.

Your creation, the tortoise, is able to merge (withdraw) all its organs in one second. Even the creation has the power to merge. On the basis of the power to merge, you master creators can merge all thoughts in a second and become stable in one thought in one second. When you stabilise yourself in your soul-conscious form, beyond any awareness of the actions of all your physical organs, you will then experience the karmateet stage, that is, the stage of perfection.
